Opening Ode

(to the tune of “O Christmas Tree”)

Sing ye praises loud and long,
And let the unenlightened know
In every echo of your song,
The great deeds done, tho' long ago.

By Columbus of the valiant soul,
Who first old Neptune has controlled,
Despite of envy, intrigue, gold
In the dim past of long ago.

Opening Ode

(part 2 of 2)

(to the tune of “O Christmas Tree”)

With vessels three, o'er stormy sea,
He thrill'd the world of long ago,
While wisdom link'd with destiny,
In justice scale its weight did throw.

We are his heirs; we wear his name;
We boast his deeds; we spread his fame;
Our order is the shining flame
That lights the gloom of long ago.
